Mother and daughter go down together. A lovely maiden leans into eternity! Wives and husbands, cons and daughter are wrecked and lost. Many and hearts are left to moure the loss. A husband lest his wife and daughter, a young man lost his betreched.

A constamplation of these horrible "wrocks" work wonderfully upon the mind. The thought makes one feel sad. The strain upon delicate female nerves is too great. A married lady of our acquaintance was so wrought upon mentally that the became low-spirited and sad, lost her appetits, refused food, became females on much, but she insisted that lase friends insisted that she should not think of these "wrecks" so much, but she insisted that she was sick in reality, and took her bed. She side in chronic famile weaknesses and excesses and death.

Another case in point was that of a young lady. She had lost a friend and soon became melanchely and nervous, could not sleep soundly, her memory began to fall her, she lost all desires for company, her brain lost its brittlinney, her eye its linker, her checks became pale, complained of constant heradache, and finally fell a victim to a list of female troubles, hysterics, palpitalions, defiritum, convulsions, and death. These cases are of every day occurrance, and those "wrecks" upon female society are frightful. They should be remedied, and there is a remedy within the "wrecks" upon female society are frightful. They should be remedied, and there is a remedy within the reach of all, and it is your duty to apply it.

No one need complain, for dr. dromgoole's english female bitters will cure all such. A book is published giving details of all these "wrecks." Send your name to j. p. dromgoole and co., louisville, ky, and get one free. SHIPWRECK! TERRIBLE LOSS OF LIFE!!
